Day 3 Amsterdam overnight on cruise

Amsterdam is a city, but it is also a country by itself, "a small nation inside a large one", wrote Geert Mak in "Amsterdam: a brief life of the city". There are more than 1200 bridges and 165 canals throughout the city, and they are just part of the biggest attractions in Amsterdam. After breakfast, enjoy a walking tour of the city and find out all attractions with our tour guide. Lunch will serve on board after the morning tour. Welcome cocktail and safety instruction in the lounge followed by the Welcome Gala Dinner.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4 Arnhem overnight on cruise

One of the largest cities in the Netherlands, Arnhem – on the right bank of the Nederrijn. Today, we will visit Open Air Museum; it is a wonderful spot to present Old Dutch's life style. Spread across 82 beautiful wooded acres just 4km from the heart of Arnhem. Museum founded in 1912 by ordinary Dutch citizens wanting to preserve traditional ways of life and folk art from different parts of the country. Return to the ship for lunch, and depart to Cologne in the afternoon.

Day 5 Cologne overnight on cruise

Awake this morning in Cologne, one of the highlight cities in this trip. Cologne can trace its roots back to the first century AD, when it was established as a Roman provincial capital and military stronghold, and one of its most appealing features for tourists is that it retains elements from all the various periods of its long history. Near the left bank of the Rhine, Cologne's towering landmark, the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Mary, is a UNESCO world heritage site.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 6 Koblenz-Rudesheim overnight on cruise
