Day 4: Istanbul-Safranbolu

After breakfast transfer to Safranbolu. visit Safranbolu Old Town, it is a UNESCO-protected site, where narrow cobblestone alleyways wind up the hillside, lined by squeezed-together Ottoman timber-framed mansions. Cinci Hammam Outside Photo Stop, this famed bathhouse (hammam) has been wonderfully restored. Koprulu Mehmet Pasa Mosque, there are several good examples of mosque architecture in Safranbolu, but this one is regarded as the most interesting. Cinci Han "Caravanserai" Outside Photo Stop, it is a reminder of the town's importance as a stop on the trade route to and from the Black Sea. Built in the 17th century, the han would have been used by merchants as their hotel while in town.

Safranbolu Bazaars "Yemeniciler Arastasi", it has traditional leather and felt workshops, as well as stalls selling textiles and traditional lace work. Turkish Coffee Experience at Leyla Hanim Mansion, discover traditional techniques to making a perfect cup of Turkish coffee during this. Alongside your professional guide, enjoy learning the craft of coffee production at a shop, plus sip delicious coffee at local coffee shop. Dinner and overnight in Safranbolu.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 5: Safranbolu-Cappadocia

After breakfast continue to Cappadocia. A region of surreal rock formations and incredible cultural heritage, Cappadocia is home to rock cut temples, ancient underground cities, and unparalleled landscapes. Visit "Fairy Chimney"- its iconic volcanic cones. The thick clusters of rosy rock take on peculiar shapes-look for a dolphin, Napoleon's hat, or the Virgin Mary as you gaze upon them. Your guide explains how the formations were naturally carved. You may also see the remarkable mushroom-shaped, chimney like rock formations that monks used as shelters, and get the chance to climb inside one to visit the quarters within.

Overnight in Cappadocia.

Day 6: Cappadocia

This morning you may join the Hot Air Balloon Ride (USD$380). Then begin the day very early on a visit the Open-Air Museum in Goreme. It's a monastic complex composed of churches, rectories, and dwellings, and one of the earliest centres for religious education. Its larger areas are connected to each other by tunnels. Underground city had a built-in communication system of pipes on each of its levels, which have no such systems. Each carved out room had ventilation provided by holes when the city was closed against enemies. Lastly, visit the village of Avanos that is famous for its beautiful old houses, pottery and onyx. Today you may join the Optional Jeep Safari Tour (USD$120) and Traditional Turkish Night Dance Show with unlimited drinks (USD$75).
